the Power of Membership with ICWP

Imagine your organization at the forefront of national water policy – shaping priorities, gaining insider knowledge, and forging connections that drive real impact.

Here's why joining is a game-changer:

HAVE A VOICE WHERE IT MATTERS MOST

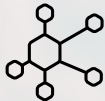

Influence National Policy: As one of our 25+ member institutions, your agency directly shapes ICWP's advocacy and policy priorities, ensuring your concerns are heard at the highest levels.

Leadership Opportunities: Only members can serve on ICWP's board of directors or as committee chairs – positions that let you guide the direction of our organization and the broader water sector.

UNMATCHED ADVOCACY SUPPORT

Direct Access to Expert Advisors: Your dues help fund ICWP's strategic partnership with Van Scoyoc Associates, a leading government affairs firm. Every member has a direct line for expert guidance on federal engagement and policy strategy.

Shape Coalition Action: Contribute to joint advocacy letters and initiatives, amplifying your agency's voice on the national stage.

Peer Connections: Build lasting relationships with water leaders across the country. Members enjoy discounted access to in-person events and enhanced opportunities to collaborate on today's water management issues.
